Transformational Living = Experiencing God's grace and passing it on to others.

- Forgiveness fosters reconciliation.
Forgiveness may break a cycle of retaliation and lead to mutual reconciliation.
- Our enemies are affected.
It may make the enemy feel ashamed and change his or her ways.
- Paybacks stunt your growth and ability to be missional.
Repaying evil for evil hurts you just as much as it hurts your enemy. Even if your enemy never repents, forgiving him or her will free you of a heavy load of bitterness.

Points of Application

- 1) Read Romans 12 this week.
- 2) Memorize Romans 12:1-3.
- 3) If transformational living is experiencing God's grace and passing it on to others, how and who are you lavishing God's grace upon?
- 4) Are there any situations or individuals which are your injustices or enemies? How have, or will you, love them the way Christ has loved you?
- 5) Reflect how being missional, exercising love and forgiveness, is an act of worship.

Prayer Requests

- Darrin Sliffe's mom, Judie, as she continues her cancer treatments.
- The Avenue offers its condolences to Tracy King in the loss of her mother, and Jessica Cain in the loss of her grandmother, Judy May.
- Continue to pray for Todd and Rebecca Long and their new born twins, Joel and Leah, as they continue to gather strength in health after their birth, and all of their transitions as the twins come home.

Have a prayer request? Please fill out the Info Card in the bulletin, or email Danielle@WalkTheAvenue.com by Thursday each week and we'll have it in the upcoming Sunday bulletin.
